Decide Details of Queen Elizabeth Advocates Suffrage, Not Sex Equality

Belgium's Heroic Nurse Reveals Her Thoughts in First Interview in America; Always Behind Styles; Impressed by Her Visit Here, She Says

Queen Elizabeth of the Belgians advocates votes for women, but she does not believe in the equality of the sexes any more than in employing militant methods to obtain suffrage. She sail so to a representative of The Assonated Press. The interview was given an board the royal special train on which the King and Queen arrived here yesterday.

No Equality of Sexes

"The war taught me," she said, "that there is no equality of the sexes. My husband was a soldier and I was a nurse. So it was with all women. The future should see work divided along the same lines. When women are forced to earn their own living I have no objection to their doing that for which they are best fitted, but those who do not need to work should learn hygiene and general heavier. who do not need to work should learn hygiene and general hospital work.
